"Young Corbett" Easily Defeats Terry McGovern at Hartford, Conn.

Fight Lasted But Two Rounds and Was a Shock to Prize Ring

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 28.—
Knocked out in the second round, of which one minute and fortyfour seconds had elapsed, was the referee's verdict in the fistic battle between "Young Corbett" of Denver and Terry McGovern of Brooklyn, who has held the featherweight championship unflinchingly since he won it from began slugging.

and Terry went down and out. While the fallen champion was frantically ring, after three rattling preliminaries, the fallen champion was frantically trying to regain his feet the crowd yelled madly. The referee declared tha "Young Corbett" had won. He won on his merits, as he took no chance. Terry was crestfallen after he returned to his dressing room. He said: "Well, you can't tell how things can be accounted for. I hope to make an well, You can't tell how things can be accounted for. I hope to make autother match with Corbett, and I am more than confident that he will not be able to put it over me again."

"Young Corbett" will remain here for when he emerged from his dressing room. At first he was reluctant to talk, but finally said:

"Young Corbett" Talks.

"I was sure I could beat McGovern, and my opinion was based on what I had seen and heard of him. I felt flart I had him from the first punch, but I was cool-headed all through. When I began to sting him he lost his head, and when he lost his head it was all over. I had him right there, and with a right swinging uppercut I landed the blory which won the battle."

"Young Corbett" will remain here for some days. Days Sullivan was one of Outwitted and outpointed with a fighter into the same as himself. McGovern had to lower his colors this afternoon at the Nutmeg Athletic club to "Young Corbett" within six minutes from the start of the fight.

"Young Corbett," who outside of ring parlance is Billy Rothwell, got the better of the champion in less than two rounds of fighting, and he did it so perfectly that there was no doubt about it. The shock to the New York enthusiasts who crowded the boxing parvillon when the little champion was knocked out in the second round, was a repetition of the disappointment exholited by the adherents of John L. Sullivan when Corbett defeated him in New Orleans.

Terry Was Too Slow.

Terry was as fit as the proverbial addile, but he was not fast enough for his man. From the word "Go" the men went at each other like game-cocks, and it looked as if either would go out in the first round. McGovern got the worst of the opening tound, and in his endeavor to get in, left himself open several times. Corbett stond off McGovern was knocked down in the opening round there were crise of dismay from his backers, but his wonderful recuperative powers were equal to the occasion, and he was condition could not be imponent's condition. Baltimore, Md., Nov. 28.-Joe Walcott got the decision over Young Peter Jack-son before the Eureka Athletic club here tonight after twenty rounds of perhaps This blow just grazed McGovern's the fiercest fighting ever seen in this city, head, but a moment later Corbett feinted again, and after a rattling exchange sent his right own to the fermion of the defensive from change sent his right to finish

When the men stripped and entered the ring, after three rattling preliminaries, I Jackson stood fully three inches above Walcott, but lacked the sturdy build of the Boston negro. Walcott sailed in from the very first with the evident intention of finishing his man as soon as possible, and between laughs and jokes with the spectators at the ringside, simply rained blow after blow upon the Californian.

One round was merely a repetition of the other until the sixth, Walcott doing all the leading and Jackson defending himself as well as he could. In this round Walcott sent three hard jabs to the wind and got a stiff one on the mouth in return. In the eighth Jackson managed to get in a good jab on the face, but Walcott pounded him so hard over the heart and kidneys that he soon had him groggy. The gong saved Jackson, who came up a little bit stronger in the next round, but with his right eye completely closed and the blood flowing in streams from his left ear.

From this time on the finish was simply a question of whether Walcott could hit his man often enough and hard enough to put him out. The Californian, however, took his gruel with remarkable for tude with the fifteenth round, when Joe sailed in, and after punching him all over the ring accidentally tripped him so that Peter landed on his back near the ropes.

The chief of police then interfered and added the first stoned to which de

Ferns Gets Decision.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 23.—Rube Ferns of Buffalo was given the decision over Charlle Thurston of San Francisco after fifteen rounds of fast fighting tonight. Referee Hogan, however, appeared to be alone in his belief, from the evidences of disapproval among the spectators, who remained for some time after the bout to express their dissatisfaction in hisses and howls of derision. Thurston was much the quicker on his feet and ducked and blocked beautifully. Ferns' blows, however, were more effective and this undoubtedly gained him the decision.

NOT A TEAM ABLE TO SCORE AGAINST HER.

Chicago, Nov. 28.-Michigan scored almost at will against Iowa today, making fifty points to the Hawkeyes' nothing. Thus Michigan closes the regular football season with a total record of 501 points, while not one of the teams she has met has been able to score a single point against her.

Iowa played a plucky game, but was outclassed. Huston and Shorts played to a spectacular game for the Wolverines. The game was played on the National league baseball grounds and the attendance was 12,000.

Iewa had the kickoff and for a few minutes gave the Michigan supporters Pi the only scare the Michigan supporters the only scare they had during the game. Sweeney caught the punt and kicked back to lowa's forty-five-yard line. Iowa gained ten yards through the mud by masses on tackle. Michigan held and Iowa punted. Michigan lost the ball on a fumble and Howell carried it fifteen yards. Line plunges netted ten yards more and then Howell tried a goal from the field but ell tried a goal from the field, but missed. Thereafter Michigan's goal was never in danger. The Wolverines had the ball nearly all the time in Iowa's territory.

The chief system of attack was the delayed pass. Idaho put up a desperate battle from beginning to end but could not withstand the fierce on-slaught of the local players.

The star of the game was Washington's lightweight quarter. Corbet. Playing like a demon himself, he ran the team with masterly generalship, and when the whistle blew received a great ovation from the rooters of both sides. Captain Gibb and Horton were Idaho's chief stars. The Jayhawkers became desperate and an effort was made to strengthen the line, Leighy replacing Dodd and Hock taking Beaman's place. The change was immediately effective, and Defeated Park City by Score of 12 Score: Missouri, 18; Kansas, 12.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Wisconsin, 25:

An interesting discussion as to the sprinting abilities of Johnnie Chapman and W. H. Palmer led to a match race between these two on West Second South last evening. A number of specialors gathered to witness the race. A hundred-vard course was marked off in front of Brokers' row, and at the word Chapman and Palmer cut loose. Chapman evidently thought he was in a bicycle race and at the start fell in behind. When nearing the finish he made one of those famous sprints that have won so many victories for him on the saucer track. Palmer finished a bad second, something like twenty yards outside the time limit. A number of bets changed hands on the result.
